Nazis Center Bombings on Southwest England RECORD KILL OF DEER

ATTACKS ON LONDON RESUMED

Hitler's Luftwaffe Hammer Furiously Britain's West Coast Port of Bristol For Six Hours During Night And Then Shift Attention Suddenly to Capital After Passing Up the City Entirely From Dusk to Dawn

ACTIVITIES OF U-BOATS GREATLY INTENSIFIED

By The Associated Press
London, Dec. 3.—(P)—Adolf Hitler's Luftwaffe hammered furiously Britain's west coast port of Bristol for six hours last night and then shifted its attention suddenly to London today after passing up the capital entirely from dusk to dawn.

Twice before noon, the Germans struck at London, and one squadron of raiders dodged through a curtain of anti-aircraft fire to sow bombs which demolished a number of dwellings and caused some casualties. A third alarm, which was followed quickly by the all clear, sounded during the lunch hour.

Early in the afternoon, the same time German planes were reported near a West England town. The Nazi night raiders left a trail of destruction across ancient Bristol, a vital shipping center, which was identified in the first official reports of the attack merely as "a town in West England."

(In Berlin, informed Nazis likened the attack on Bristol to the punishing raids previously carried out on the industrial city of Coventry and the south coast port of Southampton.)

It was the third time in less than 10 days that the port had been attacked heavily. Twice early last week, the Germans subjected Bristol to a bombardment which a related eye-witness account said today had laid an 18th century section of the city "in ruins" and destroyed many of its fine university buildings.

The day's communique of the Air Ministry said aircraft of the coastal command attacked shipping off the Norwegian coast last night, dealing a direct hit to one wharves at Eidsa Island.

Alfred, one of the bomber command, the communique said, attacked the submarine base at Loc-Dient. No planes were lost in the operations, the report said.

Twenty-two merchant ships totaling $7,975 tons were sunk by "enemy action" in the week ending (Turn to Page Nine)

THREE INDICTED IN GREENE COUNTY PLOT

Waynesburg, Dec. 3.—(P)—A Greene county grand jury indicted 49-year-old Robert Headley and two women acquaintances with plotting to kill his wife in a hold-up.

Headley, a gas field worker, Mrs. Otis Cumberledge, 38-year-old widow, and her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Fottitt, 25, were named yesterday in indictments charging assault and battery with intent to kill and conspiracy to commit murder.

Mrs. Headley was shot five times in the garage of her home near here last August 13. She recovered in a Waynesburg hospital.

The accused women, Sheriff Henry Flowers said, made statements implicating Headley, but he denied their charges. A trial date has not been set.

STRAY BULLET VICTIM

Bellefonte, Dec. 3.—(P)—A stray shot killed James Shaw, a miner yesterday afternoon in his cabin near Snowshoe. The bullet came through the wall of the shanty, entered Shaw's back and plowed through his heart. State Police began an investigation.

The air war: R. A. F. bombers strike at Naples and Augusta and pound German submarine base of Lorient on the French coast; Hitler's planes return to attack London, after passing up the British capital over night for a concentrated raid on Bristol, a west coast port.

The Italian-Greek conflict: Athens reports Greek troops are driving Fascist warriors back past Porto Edda, the Adriatic seaport renamed in honor of Mussolini's daughter.

WOMAN FATALY BURNED IN EARLY MORNING FIRE NEAR SPRING CREEK

Burned about the head, face, arms and shoulders in a fire that destroyed her home near Spring Creek early this morning, Mrs. Sara Velma Tripp, 57, wife of David O. Tripp, died at 12:40 o'clock this afternoon in the Corry hospital.

A son, Carl Ralph Tripp, 21, is in the hospital there with burns about the head and face, but his condition is not considered serious, it was reported.

The home was located on the Garland-Spring Creek road, just west of Deerhead Inn, about a half mile east of Spring Creek.

The fire was discovered about 5:30 o'clock this morning by the husband, D. O. Tripp, who went downstairs to investigate an explosion. He found the entire living room in flames and called to the other members of the family to get out of the house.

Mrs. Tripp and the son, Carl, escaped through the blazing living room, but were burned in doing so. Three other children escaped by jumping from a second floor window. They are two sons, Marion, 18, and Lionel, 16, and a daughter, Elsie, 14. They were uninjured except for minor bruises.

All were taken to the home of neighbors and an ambulance from Corry was called to take Mrs. Tripp to the hospital there. The son was admitted to the hospital later.

Mr. Tripp said that he had gone downstairs about 4:30 to shake down the fire in a heating stove in the living room. It was about an hour later that he heard the explosion and discovered the fire. It is believed that accumulated coal gas in the stove caused the blast.

The family lost all their belongings. (Turn to Page Nine)

Greek Left Wing Sets Pace For Important Campaign in Albania

Athens, Dec. 3.—The Greek left wing, reported to have smashed past Porto Edda, was said today to be pacing wide new gains all along the battlefield and threatening to engulf the last Italian fighting force in southern Albania.

The High Command reported Greek shock troops won new mountain peaks. (Turn to Page Nine)

UNIONTOWN MAN IS NEW STATE SEC. OF MINES

Harrisburg, Dec. 3.—(P)—Richard Maize, of Uniontown, was appointed today as state secretary of mines by Governor James E. Thomas, succeeding the late John Ira Thomas.

Maize has been serving as deputy secretary of mines for the bituminous division.

Joseph J. Walsh is the deputy for the anthracite region and has served as acting secretary since Thomas' death last summer.

CRUISER AWAITING PRESIDENT

Chief Executive Rides Down The Atlantic Seaboard Toward Miami to Sail Into Caribbean in Search Of Rest, Fish and Information on Defenses Vital To the Protection of the Panama Canal and Hemisphere Coasts

AUTHORITIES TAKING SPECIAL PRECAUTIONS

BY DOUGLAS E. CORNELL
Miami, Fla., Dec. 3.—(P)—President Roosevelt arrived here today to sail into the Caribbean with only a general idea, he said, where the cruise might take him.

He indicated, however, that the odyssey had a serious purpose by telling a press conference shortly after a special train pulled in from Washington that there was not going to be much fishing.

That fishing stuff is the bunk, Mr. Roosevelt said.

There was no reception upon the president's arrival. Crowds stood under grey skies along the route of a short ride from the station to the municipal docks where the Cruiser Tuscaloosa waited to speed the presidential party southward.

STRICKEN ILL ARGUING CASE IN HIGH COURT

Philadelphia, Dec. 3.—(P)—Former Attorney General William A. Schnader collapsed of a stroke today while arguing a case before the state supreme court and was taken to a hospital in a serious condition.

Schnader slumped unconscious in a chair a moment after he asked the court to postpone the argument because he was ill.

Police Surgeon Harold Antrim was summoned and said Schnader had suffered a stroke.

He was rushed from the courtroom and removed to University hospital in an ambulance.

The high tribunal immediately recessed.

PLANS CHRISTMAS GIFT
London, Dec. 3.—(P)—Lord Woolton, food minister, announced today his Christmas "gift" to the nation would be increased sugar and tea rations for the week of Dec. 16. They will be 12 ounces of sugar and four ounces of tea, instead of eight and two ounces, respectively, allowed now.

Persons in all walks of life have been mystified and amazed by the mental feats of Dr. Franz J. Polgar, who comes to the high school auditorium here on Wednesday evening, December 11, to give a lecture-demonstration for the benefit of the Atlas Santa Claus Fund of the Times-Mirror.

From doctors to newspapermen, all have marveled at the seemingly impossible feats of the mind which Dr. Polgar accomplishes.

In his column in the Erie Daily Times, Jay James tells an interesting story of Dr. Polgar's appearance before a group of newspaper men in New York. He writes as follows:

"I was up in one of the tower suites at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York, during a newspaper meeting that I first saw the amazing Dr. Franz J. Polgar. A newspaper syndicate outfit had him as a guest. A group of editors and publishers were gathered for a cocktail party. Dr. Polgar was introduced to each one. A half hour later he called each by name in the order they had been introduced and told each of us what town we came from, though that had not been added to the introduction. There were no stogees. He singled out one man—a newspaper artist—Dr. Polgar asked for the privilege (Turn to Page Nine)

WAYNE COUNTY BOY IS MISSING

Honesdale, Dec. 3.—(P)—Farmers beat through a snow-covered swamp in near zero temperatures today in search of 15-year-old John Gadonski, who disappeared in lower Wayne county yesterday while hunting deer.

The boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gadonski, set out to hunt yesterday about 1 p. m., on the farm of his employer, Edward Reer, near the village of Hamlin, about 25 miles from Honesdale.

State police said young Gadonski last was seen on the Weatherall farm, a mile from home, about 2:45 p. m. Between that point and the Reer farmhouse spreads a swamp.

On the theory that the boy may have broken through an ice-covered pool, Privates Edgar Schaffer and B. J. Hoban of the state motor police, searched the swamp without success throughout the night.

A new fall of snow late yesterday had covered his tracks, they said. Nearly 10 inches of snow (Turn to Page Nine)

LOGAN - WALTER BILL IS PASSED

Washington, Dec. 3.—(P)—The controversial Logan-Walter bill, which has shuttled for months from congressional pillar to post, today finally became a matter for President Roosevelt's disposition.

The bill cleared its final congressional test yesterday when the house voted 176 to 51, to accept senate amendments and pass the measure on to the White House.

Only 227 representatives were present—12 more than a quorum.

Many capitol leaders predicted that the president would veto the measure, designed, its proponents said, to establish uniform procedural standards for numerous quasi-judicial agencies of the federal government, and facilitate appeal to the courts from their decisions.

President Roosevelt's departure on a two-week Caribbean trip added an unexpected factor to the bill's chance for life. It may be flown to him by military plane, along with other important documents requiring his immediate attention. (Turn to Page Nine)

Temperatures Hit Lowest Point of Season With Still Colder Weather Being Predicted

Party of Fourteen Marooned by Drifts
Ambridge, Dec. 3.—(P)—A party of 14 deer hunters from Ambridge, including Burgess P. J. Caul, were reported snowbound today in a mountain farmhouse five miles from Germania, Pa., near the New York state border.

One of the hunters struggled through drifted snow—ranging up to six feet in depth—to telephone Ambridge police and warn three other hunters, who intended to leave for Germania tonight, to stay at home.

Heavy drifts were reported through Elk, McKean, Forest and Clearfield counties by hunters returning here. Some said it took them four hours to drive 15 miles last night.

The advance of winter is accompanied by snow ranging from 10 to 18 additional inches in already-blanketed Northwestern Tier.

RECORDS ARE BROKEN
By The Associated Press
Temperatures hit the lowest point of the winter in Pennsylvania today and forecasts called for readings from 6 to 10 degrees colder tonight.

The advance of winter overnight was accompanied by snow, ranging from several additional inches in the already-blanketed northwestern tier to a scattered flakes in the eastern and southern counties.

The Highway Department reported all main roads were opened but warned motorists to drive with caution. Snow plows and engine crews went out from district headquarters.

A southwestern sections reported snow fall varying from one half inch to five inches with the heaviest fall in the Westmoreland county mountain region.

Snow was reported drifting in Somerset county with temperatures of as low as nine degrees above zero.

In Erie six inches of snow fell and roads in that region as well as in Clearfield, Clinton, McKean and Potter counties were icy.

A quarter inch of ice formed on the Allegheny river above Mosgrove, Armstrong county, and the stream down to Notrona, Allegheny county, was covered with running ice.

By early morning eighteen to twenty inches of snow lay over the northwestern counties and it still (Turn to Page Nine)

CONGRESSIONAL SEAT LOST TO PENNSYLVANIA

Keystone State is Among Ten in Nation That Must Reshuffle Counties in Order to Reduce by One Representatives in the House

Harrisburg, Dec. 3.—(P)—The census report today showing the loss of one Pennsylvania seat in congress on the basis of 1940 population added another highly controversial subject to the troubles of the 1941 legislature—reshuffling the 67 counties for representation by 33 U. S. representatives instead of 34.

The final census figures gave Pennsylvania a population of 9,900,180, an increase from 9,831,350 for 1930, but a smaller increase than was gained by other states.

The constitution requires also that the legislature shall reapportion the state senate and the state house of representatives after each census, but no re-apportionment there has been made since 1921.

The re-apportionment problem was further complicated by a divided political control of the two branches of the legislature with Democrats holding the whip hand in the house and the Republicans in command of the senate.

The Pennsylvania representation in congress last was re-apportioned in 1931 when the state delegation was reduced from 36 to 34.

OPENING DAY MARRED BY MANY FATALITIES

Wilbur Michael, 19 Years Old, of New Castle, Reported by Companions to Have Become Separated in Vicinity of Big Arnot Monday Afternoon About Three O'Clock; Seven Reported Accidentally Killed in Various Parts of the State During the Day; Deep Snow Hampers Nimrods in Northern Counties

IN DISTRICTS WHERE LEGAL FIRST DAY'S BAG RUNS MOSTLY TO DOES, GAME OFFICIALS SAY

Searchers continued their efforts today in an attempt to find 19-year-old Wilbur Michael, of New Castle, who has been lost in the vicinity of the Big Arnot run, near Cherry Grove, since yesterday afternoon when he became separated from his companions while hunting deer.

The youth, with a brother and two other companions, came to this section yesterday morning to hunt deer. Michael was missed about three o'clock in the afternoon, but the other members of the party continued the search themselves until about 10 o'clock last night, when they came here for help.

A party of about 20 men, including a dozen Boy Scout leaders, spent the entire night searching in the vicinity of the Big Arnot, Little Arnot and surrounding sections, but their efforts were in vain.

This morning, a party under the leadership of Game Protector George Norris and Deputy Protectors Robert Reynolds and Ralph Jackson, continued the search. At press time Michael had not been located.

Among those who aided in the search last night were Vance Weld, Ernest Johnson, J. E. Springer, Carl Barker, Leo Eberhardt, Don Miller, H. H. Gustin, Dale Hanks, Rev. T. K. Dielsche, Carl W. Rogers, L. B. Linder, John Wayne and Scout Executive Calvin Hall.

Several other hunters were reported lost yesterday and today. Joe Price, of Meadville, who was lost in the Sandstone Springs section, and a Sharon man were found after several hours. Searching parties are still seeking Sylvester Chessman, 23, of Cleveland, lost in the Westmoreland section, south of Bradford, and Nick Piccolo, 55, of Kane, lost north of that place.

The first hunting accident reported in this immediate vicinity occurred this morning about 10 o'clock, when Roy Gidner, 39, of Fairview, received a wound in the left hip, caused by a stray bullet, while hunting near Irvine. The bullet went in the side of the hip and came out about six inches farther back. He was treated at the local hospital and discharged.

Harrisburg, Dec. 3.—(P)—Seven persons were killed by gunfire in the opening of Pennsylvania's deer season and at least five others were missing today in near zero temperatures and a snowstorm that piled up six-foot drifts in some counties.

One hunting party of 14 was reported snowbound in a mountain farmhouse five miles from Germania, Pa., near the New York state border.

The heavy snow caught hunters in the woodlands of the northwestern counties late yesterday. Falling steadily through the night, the snow piled up to a depth of 18 to 20 inches by noon today in the border counties. Ten inches were reported to the east.

Overnight temperatures dipped to as low as six above.

The season's seventh fatality was recorded this morning when Robert Arnold, 35, of Mount Zion, died in a Stroudsburg hospital from a bullet in the abdomen. He was injured yesterday when his rifle accidentally discharged.

Last night and early today, a steady stream of automobiles with one or more deer tied to the running boards passed homeward through upstate cities on the fringe of the mountainous northern tier.

It was estimated unofficially that 475 deer fell in Luzerne county. In Pittston, Traffic Patrolman Joseph Gilmartin said he counted no less than 100 on cars that passed his corner during the day.

District Game Protector Joseph A. Leincker reported that more than 300 were killed in Berks county, a record for the first day.

Although the deep snow made walking difficult, the veterans agreed that it made the hunting easier by driving the deer down from the high mountainsides.

The fatality list included: Thomas J. Long, 56, DuBois, dead, struck by a stray bullet in Clearfield county.

Stanley Ford, Turtle Point, killed in McKean county.

Jack Brandon, 43, Franklin, accidentally shot near Oil City.

Leroy Keller, 28, Stony Creek, Mills Berks county, found fatally shot in the Union county hills, near Milfordburg.

Forty American Pilots Making Regular Mass Deliveries of American Bombers to England

Baltimore, Dec. 3.—(P)—Forty American pilots are making regular mass deliveries of American bombers to England without interruption from German Nazis, one of them disclosed today, and are taking the ships across the icy north Atlantic at high altitude in approximately ten hours.

George R. Hutchinson, head of the "flying Hutchinson" family which in recent years made "good will" flights to 51 countries, said that regular deliveries had been made since early November and that none of the pilots had encountered German opposition.

On the first flight the seven bombers started away in formation, led by a British officer, but after 5 1/2 hours bad weather and severe icing conditions forced them (Turn to Page Nine)

Seven high-speed Lockheed Hudson bombers were delivered in the first flight last month, he said.

The planes take off from an airport in "British North America," Hutchinson said, each carrying a pilot, co-pilot and a radio operator. He said about 60 pilots and 20 radio operators, including Americans, Canadians and Britons, were participating.

ELKS INITIATE LARGE NUMBER THIS EVENING

A large attendance is expected at the regular meeting of Warren Lodge, No. 223, E. P. O. Elks, to be held this evening at eight o'clock in the lodge home, Hickory street, when a large class of candidates will be initiated by the local officers in honor of General John J. Pershing.

Throughout the country this month, Elks lodges are initiating candidates in honor of the World War commander of U. S. military forces to stress the need for Americanism and preparedness.

It was stated today that approximately 25 candidates will be initiated tonight.

A special lunch will be served by the house committee following the meeting.

ROUTINE MATTERS CONSIDERED AT DECEMBER MEETING OF COUNCIL

Routine business occupied the attention of members of the Warren borough council at their December session, held last night in the municipal building.

Principal matter to come before the body was the opening of bids for approximately 2,500 feet of 24-inch sewer pipe. The contract for furnishing this material was awarded to the United Lumber and Supply Company at a cost of $1.39 per foot.

President F. W. Waite read a letter from the Veterans of Foreign Wars band, thanking council for its cooperation in the series of concerts given during the past summer.

Councilman R. M. Krebs reported receiving $3,951.28 in taxes during the past month. Upon motion by him, bills amounting to $17,498.11 were ordered paid. Payments of $1,462.50 from the sinking funds were approved.

The finance committee was authorized to transfer any unencumbered balances from the general fund to any fund which may be overdrawn in order that accounts may be balanced by the first of the year.

All committees were asked to submit tentative budgets for 1941. A report on WPA projects in the borough was presented by Councilman D. W. Lewis.

J. H. DeFrees, chairman of the police committee, reported that a total of $860.17 was received from parking meters during the month. He reported 121 arrests of all kinds during the month, with $138 in fines collected and $7.50 due.

Chairman H. S. Hampson, of the fire committee, reported 14 calls during the month with a total loss of $6,790. One of these involved a death, the first caused by fire in the borough since February, 1934, it was reported.

Upon motion by W. R. Walsh, expenditure of an additional amount of approximately $43 on the heating plant being installed at the central fire station was approved. Mr. Walsh reported three building permits issued during the month, with total fees of $11 collected.

It was reported by Councilman Robert Trusler that $11.50 in fees was collected from the borough scales.

WOMAN HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT AT CLARKSBURG

Word was received here yesterday afternoon that Mrs. Maude B. Moore, 60, of Ellamore, W. Va., wife of Joseph B. Moore, head of the Moore-Keppel Lumber Company, was critically injured at Clarksburg, W. Va., yesterday when the automobile in which she was riding crashed head-on into another car.

Three others were injured. Mrs. John Moore, a daughter-in-law, and Mrs. Leone M. Coffman, a daughter, were less seriously hurt. All are patients in a Clarksburg hospital.

Mrs. Coffman was diving at the time of the accident. She said a car driven by James R. Saas, of Clarksburg, veered to her side of the street and crashed into her car, head-on. Saas was slightly injured.

State Trooper G. R. Arbogast indicated that charges will be preferred against Saas.

Mrs. Moore and her daughters were on the way to Clarksburg where they planned to do Christmas shopping.

Hospital attaches said Mrs. Moore suffered internal injuries and a broken right arm. They described her condition as serious.

Scout Uniforms Are Popular Gifts For Girls on Christmas
Aprons are the most popular items for Christmas giving this season, according to Mrs. T. L. Armstrong, commissioner of the Warren County Girl Scout Council, who sells Girl Scout equipment at her home, 207 Fourth avenue. Second on the list of popular gifts are uniforms for Girl Scouts and Brownie Scouts, and many new uniforms will be seen in the county after Christmas. Some parents are including the new Intermediate Girl Scout Handbook in their Christmas lists. Other items in the Girl Scout shop include jewelry, stationery, pen and pencil sets, novelty pins and garments, all designed especially for Girl Scouts and Brownies and all reasonably priced.

Mrs. Armstrong gives her services to make this equipment available to the girls, as all profits go directly to the fund for repairs and improvements at Camp Birdsall Edey. Parents and others who want to give a Girl Scout gift should make their selections this week, as two weeks are needed to secure reorders on the more popular items.

MUSSOLINI'S PREDICAMENT

Mussolini is making a desperate effort with heavy reinforcements to remedy the already far-reaching effects of his Greek defeat without having to thrust pride and appeal to Hitler for help.

The astonishing success of the little Greek army against the might of Rome is having a tremendous moral effect on both Britain and the neutral countries of the Balkans.

The Turkish press even claims, with evident relish, that the Nazis have been balked in their scheme for assaulting England in the Near East by means of a drive across the Dardanelles. The British already are talking of the possibility of utilizing Greece as the gateway for a grand offensive by land against the German rear.

DeWitt MacKenzie, Associated Press foreign writer, says all this savors of wishful thinking, of course, "but there is no gainsaying that if the Greeks, with British help, can hold their own against Italy, they will have opened up an invaluable base for English operations against the Axis."

MacKenzie thinks it will give the English a land foothold against Hitler which they have not hoped to achieve for another year at best, owing to their inferiority in the air.

As a matter of fact the Fascists have got themselves into a predicament from which it would be extremely difficult for Hitler to rescue them at this time. There are only two really feasible forms of help the Fuehrer could give his Axis partner—one being with an air fleet and the other the sending of an army against Greece through either Yugoslavia or Bulgaria.

There can be small doubt that the violation of the nervous neutrality of either Yugoslavia or Bulgaria might precipitate a general Balkan upheaval.
That is exactly what Der Fuehrer has been trying so carefully to avoid.

So far as air assistance is concerned, that would be valuable, though it would require a huge aerial navy to reduce Greece at this late juncture in the operations. While Hitler likely could spare a considerable number of planes, he wouldn't want to weaken his attack on the British Isles—an assault which is calculated in part to compel the English to withdraw forces from the eastern Mediterranean to defend the homeland.

The present indications are that Hitler intends to let his partner work out his own salvation. If Duce can do this, it certainly will be much better for the prestige of the Axis.

As MacKenzie says, Mussolini's greatest danger at the moment is that his communications between Italy and Albania may be severed by the growing British attack on them. He has plenty of forces and materials to devote to the Greek show, but cutting of communications would be fatal for it would deliver the Italian army in Albania over to the enemy.
An expeditionary force, as has been pointed out before, is only as strong as the supplies and reinforcements available for it.

Men connected with the newspaper profession have the spotlight on the lecture platform in Warren this week, in William E. Haskell, executive assistant to the president of the New York Herald-Tribune, who is being presented by the Lions club at the Y. W. C. A., tonight, and Dr. Will Durant, author, philosopher and historian who appears Wednesday evening at the Woman's Club on the Y. M.
C. A. lecture forum. Too bad two such high-class attractions are booked during an otherwise busy week.

Any effort directed toward reducing accidents and fatalities deserves support and encouragement of every citizen, and it is therefore with deep appreciation that we commend the campaign started by the Chamber of Commerce for a "safe shopping period in Warren!"

One of the greatest improvements made in county highways in recent years is the one just completed at Garland, which eliminates the treacherous White-town crossing, scene of numerous fatal accidents in recent years.

LABOR BOARD MAY BRING SHOWDOWN IN BRIDGES FIGHT

Washington, Dec. 3.—A showdown on the long-standing west coast "Harry Bridges case" is just about due.

There are several ingredients
They mostly revolve about the ancient fight between Bridges' International Longshoremen's Union and Joe Ryan's A. F. of L. outfit, the International Longshoremen's Association.

A labor board decision two years ago made Bridges' union sole bargaining agent for longshoremen all up and down the west coast including certain ports where Ryan's union had practically all the men. This decision is about to be reopened—by the labor board, and by Ryan's union.

Bridges recently negotiated a new contract with the west coast employers, and the contract is now up for a ratification vote by his union. Ryan's men are threatening a strike if the contract is ratified. They say the strike would tie up such important ports as Seattle and Tacoma, and hint that it might even spread to the east coast.

A thin edge of the strike actually broke out two months ago in a few northwestern cities. It was an effort by the Ryan union to break out of the strait-jacket to which the old labor board decision confined it in the ports where it had a majority. This strike ended when the labor board agreed to take another look at its old ruling.

Right now the labor board is about ready to do that. For two months it has been a two-man board, with Members Leiserson and Smith unable to take a joint look at much of anything. Now it is up to full strength and ready to tackle the longshoremen's case.

If by any chance it should reverse its former decision and grant bargaining rights by ports instead of giving one union rights for the entire coast, the power of Bridges union—and consequently of Bridges himself—would be seriously curtailed.

One more serious strike in a big defense-industry plant would probably start an almost irresistible sweep in Congress for some sort of law limiting the right to strike and setting up compulsory arbitration machinery for labor disputes.

The sweep is already in motion but it hasn't picked up much momentum yet.

The administration's labor advisors are given serious thought to finding some new means to head off and/or settle labor squabbles.

Most ambitious of these plans is taking shape under the wing of Defense Commissioner Sidney Hillman. It aims at setting up regional boards, probably joint employer-worker affairs, whose job it would be to keep in constant touch with all important plants, offer mediation, and conciliation services constantly, and in general try to keep differences from reaching the strike stage.

If and when put into final form and okayed by the Defense Commissioner, the project would probably be set up under the commission by executive order.

Officers Are Reelected and Other Important Business Transacted at Board of School Directors Meeting

W. F. Clinger was re-elected president of the Warren board of school directors at the December meeting of that body held last evening in the high school. M. G. Keller was re-elected vice president. Other business considered by the board was a routine nature with many requests and recommendations being heard and granted.

The school orchestra was authorized to go to Franklin Friday of this week under the supervision of Mr. Summers for an exchange concert. A motion that the capella choir be privileged to give a concert at the state hospital Friday afternoon, December 20, was likewise approved.

The board authorized Superintendent Rossman to attend the P. S. E. A. convention to be held in Harrisburg the latter part of Christmas week. Favorable action was taken on a request that pay checks be distributed December 20, before the Christmas holiday.

A list of students needing dental service was submitted by the dental hygienist, Frances J. Ekey, and a motion was carried for her to proceed with corrections.

The bid of the Kinander Coal Company for 350 tons of soft coal at $3.25 a ton for various buildings having been received.

A request that the Times-Mirror be permitted use of the high school auditorium, Wednesday evening, December 11, when Dr. Franz J. Polgar, noted mind reader and hypnotist, will be presented in the benefit for the Times-Mirror Alias Santa Claus Fund, was given favorable action. Another request, that of the Pennsylvania State College Extension Division for defense training, was granted, subject to the usual rental rate.

Discussion of insurance adjustments, metal for construction of the new Russell Field fence and storage of the bleachers at the field occupied much of the time.

It was stated that at the high school there were 102 students absent Monday, the first day of the big game hunting season. At Beatty school 30 pupils took advantage of the day away from school for hunting, although this work will have to be made up by the students.

It was also announced that Miss Jennie E. Thomas, for many years a teacher in Warren borough and county schools, who passed away Sunday night, was a member of the first graduating class of Warren high school.

Those present at last night's meeting included President W. F. Clinger; Director H. M. Mohr, R. W. Mackay, R. E. Brasington, Dr. W. M. Cashman, N. D. Paterson; Superintendent John G. Rossman; Solicitor A. C. Flick and Miss Emma Atkins, clerk.

ANNUAL COUNTY SCOUT MEETING BEING PLANNED

Invitations to the annual meeting of the Warren County Boy Scout Council were mailed yesterday to Scouters and friends of the movement. The meeting will be held on Thursday, December 12, at the North Warren Community House at 6:45 p. m.

The principal address will be given by Rev. J. V. Grawney of Portville, N. Y. Rev. Grawney is a graduate of Holy Cross College and was ordained in 1917 in Buffalo, N. Y., and immediately began service as an army chaplain and saw overseas service. He has served churches in Buffalo and in Portville. During the last twenty-five years he has been around the world four times and has traveled in forty-seven different countries. His address will be entitled "Under Other Flags."

Several surprises are in store for those attending the meeting and it is expected this will be one of the finest affairs of its kind in recent years.

Reservations must be made by Tuesday of next week.

Phoenix, Ariz., has an ordinance requiring licenses for bicycles.

The Friendship Club of the First Presbyterian church extends an invitation to the public to attend the "Sample Fair" to be held in the church on Friday evening, from seven until eleven o'clock.

Local merchants are presenting a diversified offering of 45 samples of food and useful articles. For the small price of admission asked, one will receive not only refreshments in the form of coffee, sandwiches, cake, ice cream and chocolate milk, but also a collection of samples to take home.

There will be several attractive special prizes given by local merchants in cooperation with the young ladies who have arranged the displays.

The evening's program of entertainment will also include motion pictures of an educational nature.

Wedding in Kentucky Of Interest Locally

Announcement of a double wedding which took place at four o'clock Thursday afternoon, November 21, in the Methodist church at Russell, Ky., will be of interest to many Times-Mirror readers.

At that time Rev. O. P. Smith performed the ceremony, which united in marriage Miss Ada Jean Calvert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Calvert, of Titusville, and Alden F. Whitcomb, son of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Whitcomb, of Grand Valley; also Miss Ruth Farren, of Titusville, and George D. Groves, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Groves, of Sugar Grove.

Mrs. Whitcomb is a graduate of Pleasantville High School and of Fellers' Beauty College in Oil City and has been employed for the past four years in the Modern Beauty Shoppe in Titusville. Mr. Whitcomb, graduate of the Youngsville High School, is proprietor of the Home Supply store in Grand Valley.

Mrs. Groves, alumnus of Colestock High School in Titusville, has been employed by the G. C. Murphy Company in that city. Her husband, graduate of Louisville High School, is employed in a Grand Valley garage.

Old Offender Is Jailed Third Time In Exactly a Month

One of Warren's most noted residents, not exactly a stranger in police circles, and an intimate acquaintance of John Barleycorn and his several connections, was brought before Police Justice T. Richard Evans this morning on a charge of intoxication.

It was the fifth appearance of 1940 for the subject of this sketch, and when he finishes serving the 30-days-in-the-county-jail sentence meted out this morning, he will have spent 110 of 1940's 365 days as a guest of the sheriff.

On November 3, he was given five days. Two days after his release he was back in for 15, and a week after finishing his second term of the month was given his December dose. When he is released on or about the first of the year, he will have spent 50 of November and December's 61 in the county jail and two in the borough lockup, thus giving him but nine complete days in two months out of the 101.

Lillian Ruth Sidon Becomes the Bride of Harry A. Huckabone

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Sidon, of Starbrick, announce the marriage of their daughter, Lillian Ruth, to Harry Alvin Huckabone, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Huckabone, of Irvine.

The ceremony was performed at the bride's home at 8:30 o'clock Saturday evening, November 30, by Rev. J. H. Cruikshank, pastor of the North Warren Presbyterian church. Attendants were Freda Sidon, sister of the bride, and Ernest Huckabone, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride was attired in a street-length frock of blue silk, with white accessories, and her bridesmaid wore gray.

Following the ceremony refreshments were served, centering about a beautifully decorated cake baked by Mrs. Bessie Huckabone. Guests included the following from out of town:

Mrs. Harry Silvus and family, Marienville; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Huckabone, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Huckabone, Sackett; Mr. and Mrs. George Huckabone and family, Kane; Mr. and Mrs. Levi Huckabone, Sheffield; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Huckabone and family, Ticonderoga; Mr. and Mrs. George Gardner and family, North Warren; Mr. and Mrs. William Huckabone, Harvey; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest and Gerta Toner, Irvine; Allen Curtis, Jamestown, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Huckabone will reside at 115 1/2 Parker street, this city.

SHAKESPEARE CLUB
Members of the Shakespeare Club are being entertained this evening at the home of Miss Anna Rockwell, Third avenue, with her sister, Mrs. W. F. Henry, and Miss Ella Tybout as assisting hostesses.

MOTHERS' CIRCLE
The Jackson Run Mothers' Circle will be entertained tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. S. Lundahl, 207 Main avenue. All members are asked to be present to tie a quilt for a needy family; also to plan for the Christmas boxes distributed annually.

DAUGHTERS OF V. F. W.
The Daughters of Veterans of Foreign Wars will hold their regular meeting at seven o'clock tomorrow evening in the post rooms. A Christmas party will be planned at that time and all attending are asked to bring sandwiches for refreshments.

W. B. A. MEETING AND ELECTION OF OFFICERS
Review No. 4, Woman's Benefit Association, will hold its regular business meeting and annual election of officers at eight o'clock Thursday evening in the S. F. of A. hall.

Members have planned to attend the harvest supper in the North Warren Community House prior to the business session. The bus leaves the terminal at five o'clock, it is stated, and all those wishing to take the bus are asked to call 2127 not later than Thursday noon.

Y-DEES PLAN FOR CHRISTMAS PARTY
Plans for a Christmas party to be held on December 18 were made at last night's dinner-meeting of the Y-Dee Club of the Y. W. C. A. Members will come attired in "kid" costumes and Miss Doris Peterson will be in charge of the program following the regular dinner.

At last night's dinner session, Dr. Hilding Bengs, member of the Warren State Hospital staff, was the guest speaker. His topic, very comprehensively presented, was "Socialized Medicine."

D. A. R. BOARD WILL CANCEL MEETING
Because of the many conflicting activities, many of a charitable nature, the regular meeting of the D. A. R. executive board will be cancelled this week.

The regular meeting of the General Joseph Warren Chapter will be held next Thursday afternoon, December 12, at the Woman's Club. This is the annual Christmas meeting and members will bring their gifts of wool and threads for Ellis Island. Members are reminded that the meeting will begin at two o'clock, because of the program arranged for the afternoon.

Who Killed Aunt Maggie?

By MEDORA FIELD

YESTERDAY: Aunt Maggie has been murdered, and after a night of terror and a morning of search, Sally and Bill are no nearer a solution of the crime than at the beginning. Neither of the guests who had gone to Sally's country house for a week and party in celebration of the engagement of Claire and Bob. Now the police have at last arrived, and still the matter drags, because they are patrolmen and obviously baffled.

Chapter 23 More Police

EVE was still inclined to be airy in manner. "Are they trying to be hard-boiled?" she inquired. "Just wait until I take a hand with them."

"If you really know anything about what happened last night," I said, "for heaven's sake, now is the time to speak up."

But when it came her turn to answer questions as to name, address, occupation and whether or not she could shed any light on the events of the evening before, Eve vouchsafed no more in her replies than the strict letter of the law required. Her main concern seemed to be that the police should be properly impressed with her impersonation of the Lady Vere de Vere.

"How terrible," she shuddered, fastidiously, when Officer Hendricks announced that we would all have to be fingerprinted as soon as someone arrived with the proper equipment.

When the names of the servants were given and the fact came out that Andy was missing, Thomas was ordered to produce her pronto. "She's probably the one that did it," Patrolman Adams announced to me in a cheerful aside.

It didn't seem at all likely to me. Still, there was the fact that Thomas certainly had got himself tangled up when asked about the time Andy left home.

"I'm going to have to ask you all to stay right here until somebody gets here from town," said Patrolman Hendricks. "Well, maybe not right in this room," as a way of protest swept over him, "but don't go out of the house."

Mr. Stuart, I suppose you are willing to vouch for everybody?" "Certainly," Bill answered, "but I hope we can get it all over as soon as possible."

Well, that was out of his hands. Officer Hendricks observed that, as someone would be along shortly, and meanwhile he would question the servants in the kitchen. I suggested that they use the breakfast room and instructed Andrew to serve the two officers hot coffee and cigarettes.

Lieutenant Gregory leaned forward toward my husband. "You mean you were on the spot, say five minutes before she was killed, but saw nothing to arouse your suspicions?"

"That is right," said Bill, giving him a look for. "Of course, I can't be positive about the exact number of minutes, but there was certainly nothing to see."

"And when you came out just a few minutes after your husband had gone upstairs," he asked, turning to me, "you saw nothing either, Mrs. Stuart?"

"No." "And you have no idea of the murderer's identity?" Lieutenant Gregory looked hard at me, then focused his gaze on Bill.

"No," we both said. "Except," Bill added, "some funny things did happen."

"Yes, odd. Things we couldn't explain." And Bill told him about the telephone call to Andrew.

"What else happened that seemed suspicious?" "These," I said, extracting the scraps of green paper and the bit of silk from my pocket.

Lieutenant Gregory looked at the notes for a long time. He and Roberts exchanged glances and it seemed to me there was a gleam of excitement in their eyes.

"Odd they should use that paper," Lieutenant Gregory murmured just above his breath. "That's what I thought, too," I answered.

"How do you mean that's what you thought?" he asked quickly. "Trapping paper from a department store," I explained.

"Oh, that." "Wasn't that what you meant?" I asked.

Again the two officers exchanged glances. "Suppose we go on to this piece of cloth," Lieutenant Gregory suggested.

I explained that it was undoubtedly torn from the new eiderdown comfort brought out for Aunt Maggie's room and that, although it was seen on her bed after the murder, it was mysteriously missing this morning.

"Anything else?" he asked. "We told him about the red light about the door to Aunt Kirk's room, open and circled about. Bill's position in the hall. He listened silently and Roberts kept busy with his pen."

"Can you make any sense out of that?" I asked. "I'd rather not say just yet," he answered, with something that was as near a smile as I suppose he ever allowed himself while on duty. "What's all this about a secret room?"

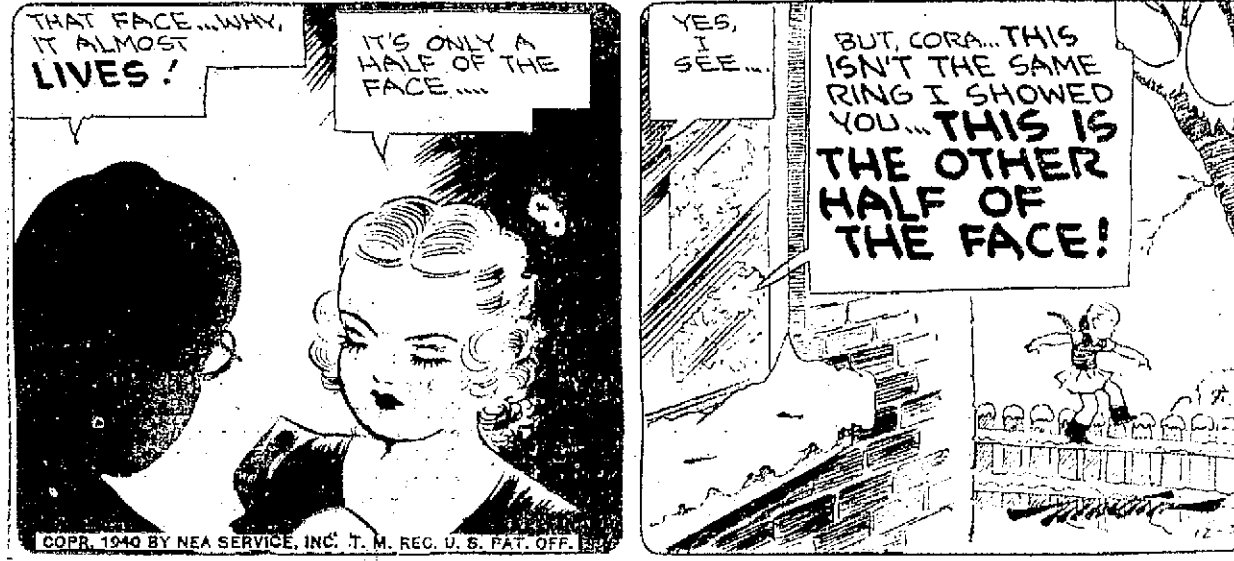

I told him of Aunt Maggie's conversation the evening before and of how I had come to believe that her murder was in some way connected with the secret room. "The trouble is the only clue we found was a note made by Aunt Maggie, which obviously refers to the silver storage closet in the kitchen."

"That note, where is it?" Bill produced it from his pocket. To be continued.

Associated Press Poll Ranks Minnesota Nation's Best

Experts Rate Indians Second And Michigan Third On 1940 List

New York, Dec. 3.—(AP)—By popular acclaim, Minnesota's 1940 leading football team... Experts rate Indians second and Michigan third on 1940 list.

So impressive was Minnesota's feat of winning eight consecutive games, all against major opposition, and taking the Western Conference championship, that it was not forgotten in the rush to select the season-closing lists of such other unbeaten and untied teams as Stanford and Tennessee.

Times-Mirror And Merchants Snare Openers

They tried the bid off the Y. M. C. A.'s two basketball leagues last night, and two free-throwing games were the result as four teams battled in the openers.

In the Class "A" leagues the Penn Merchants, made up of last year's Dragons, matched a 45-32 victory over Olson & Bjers Service Station, with Warren "Lefty" Check leading the scoring, aided materially by "Bud" Elquist and Paul Rappin.

Although Michigan lost to Minnesota by one point, all regarded them highly enough to earn third place with 914 points. Tennessee and Boston College, both unbeaten and untied, and scheduled to meet in the Sugar Bowl New Year's Day, wound up fourth and fifth with 883 and 798 points, respectively.

8. Don't neglect spares! Every ball can't be a strike in bowling so it is advisable to discuss spares. If you have difficulty with some spares, the best advice I can give is that you go to an alley and bowl that particular spare until you have gained confidence and can make it consistently.

SPORT SPATTERINGS Bill Rice

The Associated Press pointed out a football oddity this week in a dispatch from Pittsburgh which stated that two yards of gridiron meant the difference between a winning and losing season for the Pitt Panthers in their second year under their "strictly amateur" code.

At this writing, Bradford's Zippo Lighters are sailing along atop the Inter-City circuit with 28 wins and eight losses, for an average of 77.8, a few jumps ahead of the Bradford Lafayette Inn. But it is much too early to give up on any of the other teams, especially the Koch's Beer-Texas Lunch club of Warren, last year's champs, who have won 16 and lost 8 for third place.

You said it! From our sanctum window it would appear that each hunter got his deer on opening day... Except, of course, that mighty nimrod, "Daniel Boone" Johnson, who rules the composing room.

Ridgway High, the Dragons' first league opponent, dropped its opening encounter to Wilcox, 35 to 34... Norman and Barella were the big point-makers... Youngville's Eagles, who open the season here a week from tonight, are tangleing with the Corry Beavers at Corry this evening.

YEARS AGO IN SPORT

December 3, 1920—Here's the NEA's 1920 All-America: Backs, "Bo" McMillin of Centre, George Gipp of Notre Dame, White of Oklahoma, Horween of Harvard; ends, Muller of California and Carney of Illinois; tackles, Keck of Princeton and Sonnenberg of Dartmouth; guards, Tolbert of Harvard and Griffiths of Penn State; center, Depler of Illinois.

December 3, 1930—Following are the lettermen of the 1930 Warren High grid squad: Joe Allen, Tim Creal, Bob Kopf, "J. D." Scallie, "Mood" Gilson, Gettings, Sid Kelly, Ray Caldwell, Roy Barto, Ken Greenlund, "Plut" Samuelson, Jim McConnell, Jack Neal, Joe Lytle, Bob Coates and Managers Bruce Wood and Stan Anderson.

GRID ATTENDANCE ADVANCES THIS YEAR

New York, Dec. 3.—(AP)—There seems to be no reason to worry about the future success of intercollegiate football.

The big losers—like Army, Yale, Kansas, Tulane, Texas Christian, and U. C. L. A.—were the only ones whose attendance for home games slumped badly during the 1940 season, an Associated Press survey revealed today.

Attendance as a whole throughout the United States showed a 21 percent gain over the 1939 figures.

Pennsylvania, which played all except one of its games at home and had a very successful season to boot, came in with the year's biggest attendance figure, 407,135 for seven games.

GODOY GOING HOME; WANTS LOUIS AGAIN

Cleveland, Dec. 3.—(AP)—Arturo Godoy, satisfied he has staked a claim for a third match with Champion Joe Louis, packed his bags today and announced he was sailing Friday for South America.

Godoy's manager, Al Weill, said he believed the Chilean's convincing 10-round decision over rugged Tony Musto of Chicago last night placed him in line for another title shot. Godoy battered and pounded Musto and floored him twice in the fifth round—once for no count and again for a count of three.

Godoy said his immediate reason for going to his home in Iquique, Chile, was the serious illness of his mother.

Rowling Chatter

Gaghan, Dec. 3.—(AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates began strengthening their club today by purchasing Second Baseman Stuart Martin from the St. Louis Cardinals in a deal which gave the National League a jump on the American League in winter transactions.

Manager Frankie Frisch indicated a move to make his Pirates pennant contenders next season by labeling the 27-year-old Martin as one of the National's best utility players and adding:

"You can't win a pennant without a good utility man."

Martin, who beat Frisch out of the latter's infield job with the Cards, rejoined the former "Fordham Flash" again in a straight cash deal. The price was not announced. Martin performed under Frisch three years before Frankie left St. Louis as manager after the 1933 campaign.

The New York Giants, who finished in sixth place—two notches below Pittsburgh—last season, obtained former Cub Manager Gabby Hartnett as a player-coach and Brooklyn signed John Corridan as coach before the American League completed a deal. The Chicago Cubs let out "Red" Corridan along with Manager Hartnett and Coach George Uhle last month.

Major moguls are here for the convention of the minor leagues. Martin, used chiefly at the key-stone for the last three years, batted .233 last summer, a decline from his .277 major league average for the four previous campaigns. Martin, who equaled the modern record of 11 assists by a second baseman in 1936, also was used at first and shortstop in his first two summers with St. Louis.

Frisch indicated that young Frankie Gustine would retain his second base job, leaving Martin to plug any infield emergency.

STATE COACHES CONSIDER GRID RULES CHANGES

Harrisburg, Dec. 3.—(AP)—Coaches of 900 PIAA high schools in Pennsylvania were asked by mail today to pass on proposed football rule changes under consideration by the National Interscholastic Football-Rules Committee.

Questionnaires which the grid mentors may answer "yes" or "no" for the assistance of the NFIFRC were sent out by Edmund W. Wicht, executive secretary of the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association, which makes no recommendations.

The rule changes being offered, however, are "rather important from the gridders' view. From the spectator's standpoint, the one which is most startling would give the team scored upon the choice, after each touchdown, of changing goals.

The purpose of that rule change is "to equalize the advantage of wind and sun," the committee comments.

There are nine other proposed changes, which include these: 1. Remove limitation on number of times a player may re-enter the game (entry to be when time is out).

2. When a foul occurs during a play in which opponent scores a touchdown, enforce penalty on the next kick-off. This would eliminate another case where a foul goes without penalty, says the committee.

3. Require players of kicking team to remain five yards away from where kick comes down (either touching ground or a receiver).

This is designed to encourage the run back of kicks and also to reduce injuries caused by tackles which are made immediately after the ball has been touched and while the receiver still is off balance and in an unprotected position.

These other rules also are suggested (Turn to Page Ten)

CONEWANGO CLUB

Each of the Elks Exalted Rulers teams, except the National Transit and the Texas Lunch, maintained their positions last night, but the Transit took three from the Style Shop and the Texas lost the same number to the Crescent Florals, exchanging fourth and fifth places.

The league-leading Tasty Bakery divided with the second place Warren Tank Car, and the New York Restaurant took four from Rich's Atlantic Station for the fourth round. Myron Check rolled 213 and 614 to sweep the individual honors.

The Trevenens retained a mathematical chance of tying for the Conewango Club League's first third honors by taking three from the Ericksons who got their usual point... Harry Conarvo, the league's high average knegler and chief spare sharpshooter, rolled 568 while Bill Rice's 200 was enough for high single.

Follow the league encounter, five Conewango Club bowlers took on the Recreation Center from the City League, padded by Haz Hubbs, and dropped three points as Eddie Hagberg chalked up 224 and 612. Marshall Parshall's 211 was high for the losers and Kenny Bjers hung up 516 for best total.

Seemingly Impossible Feats of the Mind by Dr. Polgar Most Amazing

of revealing some personal background about the artist. He consented. "Your wife is in Reno right at this moment. She reached there yesterday. She is divorcing you. It's too bad for the affair could be patched up. Both of you are just at loggerheads. Deep down there is nothing serious and you both like each other." Dr. Polgar had never seen the artist before. He read his mind. The little "seance" brought about reconciliation between said artist and the wife, who only stayed in Reno five days. They are now getting along all right. To another writer he told him that he would be sailing for Europe for war coverage within three months. The writer hadn't any ideas of such an adventure. Less than ninety days, he was in London. How he does it—you got me.

Tickets are now on sale here for the appearance in Warren of Dr. Polgar. All proceeds from the sale of the tickets, after actual expenses are paid, will go to the Alias Santa Claus Fund to help those who might otherwise be forgotten at Christmas time.

Logan-Walter Bill is Passed

tention. Unless he acts upon it within 10 days—Sundays not included—it will become law automatically.

In the event that congress should adjourn within the next 10 days, and before the president had acted upon the Logan-Walter measure, it would die automatically.

Today's Lesson in Flag Etiquette

Residents of Wadena, Minn., shivered in 22 below weather, an aged farmer froze to death in his home at Pelican Rapids, Minn., when his daughter suffered a heart attack and was unable to feed a fire. A woman was burned to death near Hibbing, Minn., when frozen hydrants balked firemen trying to extinguish a blaze in her home.

The lowest temperatures of the fall season were recorded in Ohio. Shortly after midnight the mercury touched eight degrees at Toledo and was still falling.

Highway crews in Michigan tackled a snowfall that ranged from 13 to 16 inches in the western and central regions. Escanaba reported a minimum of four below zero at midnight.

Forty American Pilots Making Regular Deliveries

to separate. Although scattered the rest of the way, the pilots said, all of the planes landed within an hour at a pre-designated British airport.

Since then, he added, mass deliveries have been made on a regular schedule.

An American Automobile Association poll of 5,000 motorists showed principal "pet peeves" to be: (1) road "hogging" (2) drivers who out in; (3) careless pedestrians; (4) inadequate direction signs; (5) lack of parking space.

The 365 inhabitants of the Bahama island of Abaco all are descendants of two families who settled there only a generation ago.

was falling.

Headed into Pennsylvania from the middlewest was a cold mass which sent the mercury below zero at some points in the central states this morning.

Kane, the state's customary "cold spot," turned up this morning with a reading of eight above, but Schenley, in Armstrong county, was colder by two degrees. Pittsburgh reported 10 degrees lowest of the season there.

Thermometers in eastern Pennsylvania ranged mostly through the twenties. York and Hazleton both reported an even 20. Harrisburg had 24. Reading 22, downtown Philadelphia shivered in a minimum of 26, one point above the 25 recorded on November 26.

The central states saw the mercury slip below zero in many sections as a cold air mass moved eastward from the plains states.

A 54 year record for the date was broken at Milwaukee today when the mercury sank to eight below zero. The previous low was six below zero on December 3, 1886.

Residents of Wadena, Minn., shivered in 22 below weather, an aged farmer froze to death in his home at Pelican Rapids, Minn., when his daughter suffered a heart attack and was unable to feed a fire.

A woman was burned to death near Hibbing, Minn., when frozen hydrants balked firemen trying to extinguish a blaze in her home.

Local Church Plans

Five-day Golden Jubilee

There will also be special music and brief remarks by the local young people's president, Helmer Backstrom, Jr.
At 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon, the women's session will be under the auspices of the Dorcas Missionary Society and the Philathea Class, with their respective presidents, Mrs. Hannah Danielson and Mrs. Edith Haglund, in charge. Mrs. Mabel Hamlin, wife of Rev. Martin Hamlin, and Mrs. Ruth Johnson, will provide the music and there will be two informal addresses, given by former ministers' wives, Mrs. Larson and Mrs. Rendahl. Refreshments will be served, also.

Rev. Martin Hamlin

service at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening, termed "Community and Conference" night. The Swedish Baptist church choir from Jamestown and Miss Viola Lindmark, contralto soloist of the First Baptist church here, will offer special musical numbers. Community and conference pastors in attendance will extend greetings. Included in the Jamestown delegation will be Mrs. Alfred Magnusson, baptized Miss Hannah Carlson on October 24, 1897, the first believer to be baptized in the newly dedicated church.

One of the highlights of the jubilee will be the turkey banquet to be served at 6:30 o'clock Saturday evening in the Y. M. C. A., and it was stated today by Pastor Hamlin that all reservations must be made with him, 2562-J, no later than this evening.

Brief toasts and reminiscences will occupy the major portion of the dinner program, for which Henry F. Blick, vice chairman of the parish, will be toastmaster. Musical numbers and greetings will round out the program. Miss Viola Lindmark will be a guest soloist and the Calvary Male Quartet, composed of E. R. Gustafson, Clarence Swanson, Henry Blick and Melvin Danielson, will sing. Rev. Hamlin will give the invocation and Rev. John C. Bengtson, pastor of the Bethlehem Congregational church, will pronounce the benediction.

Who Says Prescriptions Are Inexpensive?

BY PAUL BRUNSCHWEIGER of The Muller Drug Co.

The man who KNOWS says prescriptions are inexpensive. He is the conscientious druggist. In his store there is no sliding scale of prices. The price you pay for prescriptions is based on cost, legitimate overhead expense and a fair margin of profit.

On the shelves and in the cabinets of a prescription department are concentrated many rare and expensive drugs. An invisible investment, far out of proportion to the amount invested in commodities with a weekly, monthly or several-times-a-year turnover.

If you are one of those who think prescriptions are expensive, go to a druggist in whom you have confidence and let him explain that investment.

And when you have prescriptions to be filled, take them to that same druggist.

State Coaches Consider Grid Rules Changes

(From Page Eight)
Most of them to bring the rules up to date with the game.
1. For any foul which now has a penalty of enforcement behind the goal line, enforce from the goal line.
2. For an incomplete or pass interference by A in B's end zone, enforce fourth down.
3. Remove the rule exceptions which now permit a team: (A) to place ball anywhere behind (in with the center) and (B) to snap ball from anywhere directly behind (instead of at) the spot of a fair catch.
4. Modify present restrictions on forward pass which ends behind the line of scrimmage by: A. Eliminate interference rules during such a pass. B. Remove penalty for throwing second pass if thrown from behind line. C. Make penalty for second pass from behind line 5 yards and loss of down (same as for other illegal passes). D. A 350-pound bear crashed into an automobile near Coudersport, Pa., Sunday. The driver, William Cassey of Olean, N. Y., reported the bruin apparently was unharmed and ambled off into the woods. A bald eagle, found with gun shot wounds near Williamsport, was reported regaining its health at the Loyalsock game farm. Farm officials said the bird probably would be turned over to a zoo since its sight was destroyed by one of the shot pellets.

THE STRANGE ANIMAL WORLD
Philadelphia, Dec. 3.—(AP)—Doings in the animal world:
Barking dogs sounded the alarm when fire swept a kennel at Kane, Pa., Sunday.
Two employees, aroused by the howling, saved 22 of 30 canines.
